1. SAN SEBASTIÁN HERMITAGE

It was the first Christian building in Setenil after being conquered by the Catholic Monarchs. It is a popular legend that explains how the hermitage came to be named. During the siege of Setenil Queen Elizabeth gave birth to a premature baby that died a few hours later and who died in the arms of the hermit. It became one of the first military hospitals in history.

2. ERMITA DE SAN BENTO

In the interior of this temple, as it is confirmed by the Romanesque traditions, is the temple of the old monastery that stood in the place where the current church is located. It is also located in the same place as the most recent Church of San Bento de la localidad.

3. ANTIQUE CASA CONSISTORIAL

This temple, reconstructed according to the style of the 19th century and converted into a museum in the 20th century, is located in the same place as the temple of San Bento and is considered to be the most important monument in the area.

4. TORNEDO Y ALIBE ÁRABE

The tower of homogeneity is an example of the more famous and the most prominent of the ancient Arabic architecture. It is located in the middle of the town and is considered to be one of the most important monuments in Setenil.

5. IGLÉSIA DE NTRA. SEÑORA DE LA ENCARNACIÓN

The church of Ntra. Señora de la Encarnación is located in the middle of the town and is considered to be one of the most important monuments in Setenil.

6. CASA DE LA DAMITA DE SETENIL

This house houses a museum collection that covers the history of Setenil through archaeological pieces found during the excavations carried out in the area. It is considered to be one of the most important pieces in the Casa de la DAMITA de Setenil.

7. CORACHA-MINA

The name of this area comes from the structures excavated in the mine, whose military function was to obtain water from a well dug deep, which was surrounded by a large hill that surrounded the town.

8. ERMITA DE NUESTRA SEÑORA DEL CARMEN

Dedicated to the prominence of the Virgin of the Carmen, this station is located in the middle of the town and is considered to be one of the most important monuments in Setenil.

9. RUINAS ROMANAS DE ACÍNPO

Situated in the town of Acínpo, these ruins are located in the middle of the town and are considered to be one of the most important monuments in Setenil.

10. CALLES JABONERÍA Y CABRERÍAS

The streets of Jabonería and Cabreras represent some of the most unique roads in Setenil, with a layout that has been adapted to the course of the river, opening up to the one side and to the other side of the river.

11. CALLES HERRERÍA, MINA Y CALCETAS

The streets of Herrería, Mina, and Calcetas are considered to be one of the most unique urban settings in Setenil, with whitewashed façades and geraniums.

12. CUEVAS DEL SOL, CUEVAS DE LA SOMBA Y CUEVAS DE LA SOPA

These are the most typical caves of Setenil. The Cueva del Sol, located on the south-facing side, is the area that receives more light on the façades of its caves, while the Cueva de la Sombra, located on the north-facing side, is covered.

13. CUEVAS SAN ROMÁN

This area is characterized by its unique layout and its whitewashed façades and geraniums.

14. CUEVAS SAN ROMÁN

This area is characterized by its unique layout and its whitewashed façades and geraniums.

15. TORREÓN Y ALIBE ÁRABE

The tower of homogeneity is an example of the more famous and the most prominent of the ancient Arabic architecture. It is located in the middle of the town and is considered to be one of the most important monuments in Setenil.

16. CASA DE LA DAMITA DE SETENIL

This house houses a museum collection that covers the history of Setenil through archaeological pieces found during the excavations carried out in the area. It is considered to be one of the most important pieces in the Casa de la DAMITA de Setenil.

17. CORACHA-MINA

The name of this area comes from the structures excavated in the mine, whose military function was to obtain water from a well dug deep, which was surrounded by a large hill that surrounded the town.